

Ivor S. Wisepart
Transportation Engineer Award

This award is presented to an engineer who has made significant continuing contributions to the field. The candidate should be an ITE member and preferably have made contributions to the betterment of the Met Section as well, but the latter is not a requirement.