

Leon Goodman Distinguished Member Award

This designation may be made by the Executive Board in “special circumstances” in recognition of a present or former member’s distinguished and significant contributions over a period of years. Retirement from regular full time practice of Transportation Engineering is a requirement but limited involvement in the profession is permissible.